

The 2011 Cleveland Cello Society Scholarship Competition

Sunday April 17, 2011 (Applications must be postmarked by March 15, 2011)

Audition location: Cleveland Music School Settlement, 11125 Magnolia Drive (in University Circle)

The Cleveland Cello Society is pleased to announce its thirteenth annual scholarship competition, open to talented young cellists residing in the State of Ohio. Please remember that a candidate may not win twice in a given division (Elementary, Junior, Senior, Collegiate), but is welcome to audition in a new division when qualified to do so. The competition has been divided into four categories: applicants should review the requirements of each category carefully. The winners will be asked to perform on a Cleveland Cello Society recital to be scheduled for the fall of 2011.

General requirements:

1. The contestant must perform the compositions listed on his or her application from memory.
2. The applicant is required to bring his or her own pianist, if needed.
3. The applicant must provide the judges with an original copy of the pieces to be performed.
4. The applicant must be a paid member of the Cleveland Cello Society (see below)

Collegiate Division: through age 23; as of September 1, 2011. Prize: $1,000.

Requirements: a) one movement from a standard concerto AND b) one movement from a Bach Solo Suite

Senior Division: grades 9 through 12. Prize: $600

Requirements: a) one movement from a Bach Solo Suite AND b) a solo piece of your choice

Junior Division: grades 6 through 8. Prize: $400

Requirements: a) one movement from a Bach Solo Suite AND b) a solo piece of your choice.

Elementary Division: through grade 5. Prize: $300.

Requirements: two contrasting solo pieces of your choice.

Agnew Prize for Bach: A $300 award will be given for the best performance of Bach by a Collegiate Division competitor. The winner of the Agnew Prize may or may not be the same individual as the winner of the Collegiate Division overall prize.

Applications must be postmarked by March 15, 2011--NO LATE APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED
